Term 4 Week 6

Remembrance Day

Our school leaders hosted our first whole school assembly for Term 4 on Thursday which was also our Remembrance Day commemoration. Year 6 were outstanding hosts and led our school through the ceremony with confidence and respect, carrying out their individual roles impeccably. All students demonstrated impressive manners and a rich understanding of the importance of our service. Congratulations! Well done to all merit award recipients from Najanuga and Barranguba classes.

Kindergarten 2022 Transition commenced today, and we welcomed Tommy and Byron into our school. Today they developed an understanding of the importance of wearing their school uniform to create a sense of belonging. They did some activities in the classroom with Ms Munn and enjoyed being with their sisters Lilah and Evie-Jay.

School Shoes are often asked about by parents. Our school uniform requires black shoes, so please, if you are purchasing new shoes for your child, consider the many black sport shoe options which are available.

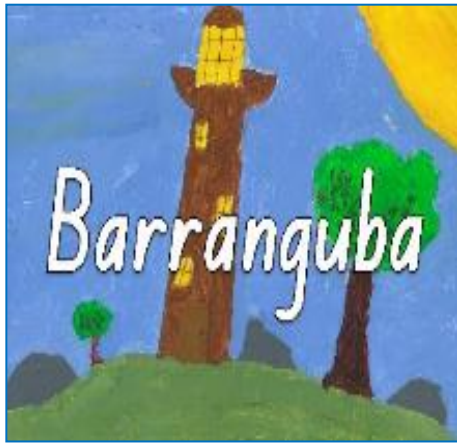

School Photos were taken on Thursday by our wonderful school photographer Amy-Lee, accompanied by her assistants Nicole, Goldie and Joey. Amy-Lee always makes the day fun! The sun was shining, and the children were glowing in their school uniforms. Thank you to families for your orders and we look forward to you receiving your photos soon.

Our PBL Focus for this week is:

We wear our school uniform with pride as it gives us a sense of belonging.

String tricks, board games and drawing were our wet weather playtime activities this week. The fun we can have and create without technology!

Kitchen Garden fun this week. Sausage rolls in the making!

We wrote some outstanding persuasive and informative pieces this week on the importance of Remembrance Day. Please see our work on display in the office.

Remembrance Day

Let's reflect back to 1914-1918, the harsh years of World War One. On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month 1918 many world leaders peacefully came together and officially announced that World War One was over and announced Armistice Day, or what we now call it Remembrance Day. The day to acknowledge all the 58,000 Australian soldiers that died in the war.

Red poppies, red poppies are the national symbol for Remembrance Day. Why do you ask? Because a guy named John McCrae fought hard in World War One. After the war in Belgium ended, John McCrae went to a battlefield that he fought in earlier in the war. Once he got to the battlefield the first thing he noticed were the stunning Red poppies.

*We must remember the importance of Remembrance Day. Remembrance Day is very important because we must remember all the 58,000 Aussie soldiers who died in the war and the 416,000 Australian people that went to war. We must be forever grateful that the war is over, and we can live in peace once again. Lest We Forget.

Remembrance Day

Stop and take a moment to think about this. On Thursday, which is the 11th day of the 11th month, we all need to gather together and pay respect to all Australian soldiers that put their lives at risk to make our lives as great as they are now. 58,000 Aussie Soldiers were killed in the first world war. All of these people deserve to be remembered with great respect and admiration. Because of their bravery and courage, we have an amazing, safe country to live in.

I know that I will be remembering the sacrifices made by having one minute of silence to think of the brave soldiers while proudly wearing a poppy. Lots of people wear a red poppy because it is a symbol of both remembrance and hope for a peaceful future. The poppy became a symbol of remembrance and hope because after the first world war ended, they grew on the abandoned battlefields in the fields of Flanders.

For lots of people in 2020 and 2021 they have had to stay at home during lockdown because of coronavirus. Now, I know it's not fun having to stay at home and not being able to see your friends, but could you imagine how scary and worrying it would be to be alive during the first and second world wars? It would be so frightening to not know when or if you would ever get to see your loved ones that went to war again. Compare that to being home with your family and getting to sleep in every day! I know which one I would rather!

So, whether you gather with your family and friends or just set an alarm and have a minute of silence at work, DO NOT FORGET to commemorate all of the amazing soldiers that sacrificed their lives to make our lives as great as they are now. We are going through a tough time with COVID 19 but just remember how lucky we are and how scary it would have been to be alive during the first and second world wars. Lest We Forget.
