Term 3 Week 6

Book Week 2023 - Read! Grow! Inspire!

Participation 100% Engagement 100% Enthusiasm 100% Creativity 120%

What an outstanding Book Week Dress Up Parade we had on Monday morning. Our children demonstrated a love of books and reading as well as a connection to the characters they adore reading about. Thank you to all families for your support in making the magic happen as well as to all parents who were able to come and watch (and participate in!) our parade.

Author Visit

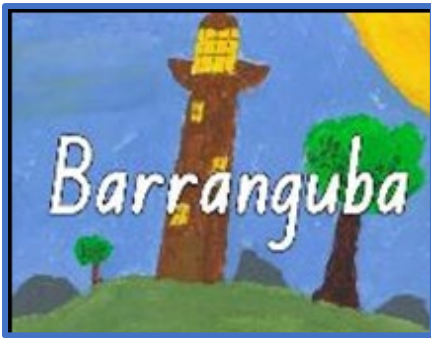

Toni Cary, the author of the Alcheringa book series came to share her knowledge of writing- from getting ideas to the layout of the book. Her new series is a graphic novel, which is a genre loved by many of our students. Toni was thrilled when she discovered that Athena came dressed as Francine the dog who is the narrator.

Evacuation Drill

Next Friday, September 1st is the first day of the bushfire season. We are having a school evacuation drill. Our emergency plan is to walk the children to the Central Tilba Village car park adjacent to Corkhill Drive to board buses and for parent pickup. This plan is the safest option as school access, parking, and vehicular turning can be very limiting in an emergency scenario. A reminder notice will be issued via School Stream for any parents who are picking their children up as they will need to park and wait at the Tilba car park by the usual 3:15 pm time.

School Planning

Any parents who would like to contribute to our school Situational Analysis as preparation for our new School Improvement Plan, please contact the school.

Our Mayor's Writing Competition entries are ready to be delivered to Narooma Library.

Some outstanding pieces of writing- Mayor Hatcher will be most impressed!

The Special Tree

I'm a little seed, tucked away and waiting to sprout.
I need things to be just right, or I won't come out.

When Mother Nature burns the Earth with lightning strikes or fire,
That's the signal for me to unravel and grow my small limbs higher.
When I pop out, the bush around is black as far as I can see.

The bush will soon be healed and green and then I realise it all begins with me.

It was stuffing day today!

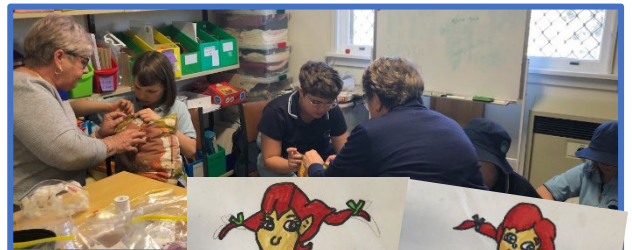

Cabbage Patch Dolls, Care Bears, cats and Huckleberry Finn cushions were completed and have gone home. Thank you, Mrs Young, and Mrs Roll xx

Calling All Bird Callers!

We are having a Tilba School Bird Olympics on Monday 18th September. Doug from Bournda explained the competition to us in a webinar on Wednesday and we are very keen to give it a go!

Entry forms will go home on Monday for any students who wish to enter.

Thank you so much to families for helping the children support our Book Week activities. We had a lovely range of characters, and some creative costume making had obviously taken place.

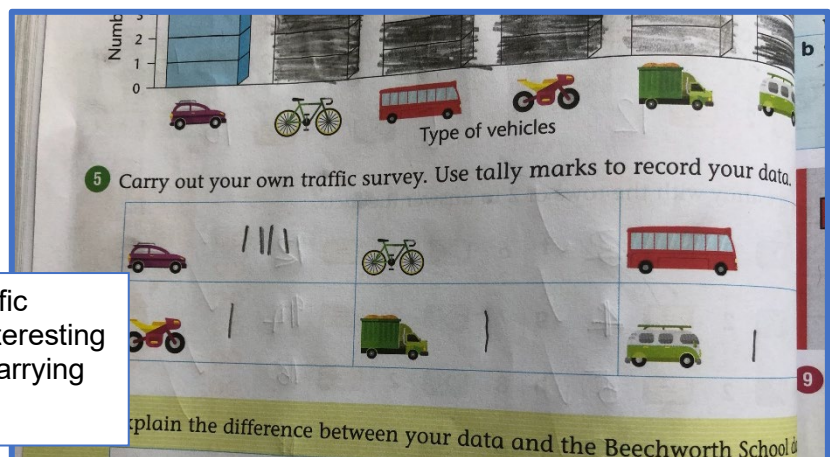

We all watched Astrid Lindgren's Pippi Longstocking.

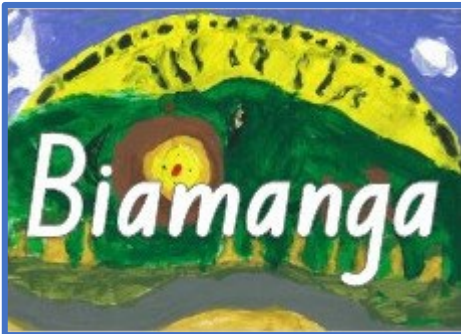

James the bus driver dressed up for Book Week, reminiscing about Oor Wullie, a book character from his childhood.

Year 2 spent 20 minutes conducting a traffic survey in maths. Surprisingly, it was an interesting time. They even had an enormous truck carrying an excavator go past and hoot loudly !

Book Week

Wow, what a week! We started with our book character parade where everyone looked spectacular! Students in Stage 2 participated in a live Book Week event, Backyard Birdies with author Andy Geppert. Andy read from his book Backyard Birdies and discussed his drawing techniques. Stage 3 were off to the State Library in a virtual excursion on Writing Spooky Stories. And to end our Book Week celebrations, we had a visit from author and illustrator Toni Cary of the Alcheringa series.
